

II

Answer the following in detail.

- Q.1 State three differences between Parenchyma, Collenchyma and Sclerenchyma on the basis of—
- Type of cells
 - Location
 - Function as shown —

Ans.	Parenchyma	Collenchyma	Sclerenchyma
a) Type of cells
b) Location
c) Function

You can do it on the white page horizontally.

- Q.2. What are the different types of cells that together form xylem?
- Q.3. What are the different types of cells that together form phloem?
- Q.4. State three differences between xylem and phloem.

Class - 7 - GEOGRAPHY -
Ch. 4 Instruments

- 1) How can you measure and record weather conditions with accuracy?
- 2) What is meteorology?
- 3) Who are meteorologists?
- 4) Name the place where weather conditions are recorded.
- 5) What is temperature?
- 6) Name the two most common thermometer scales.
- 7) What is the melting point and boiling point of water in Celsius and Fahrenheit scale.
- 8) What are isotherms?
- 9) What are isobars?
- 10) Make a chart of all the instruments and what are they used for.
- 11) Draw all the instruments.